

Agencies across Dorset have come together to agree how to reduce harm from alcohol and other drugs while protecting communities.

The Bournemouth, Poole and Dorset Alcohol and Drugs Strategy recognises people's use of substances and promotes a balanced relationship with alcohol and drugs, while working to improve life for people and communities affected by substance misuse.

Dorset aims for a balanced attitude to alcohol and other drugs

Blog: Working together is the best way to reduce alcohol and drug harm