

Procurement opens for organisations to provide community health services

Is your organisation interested in providing health improvement services in local communities?

Public Health Dorset will be commissioning a wide range of services that will be available for people to access in community settings from September 2015 onwards.

Go to Supplying The South West \(opens in a new window\) to find out how you can register your organisation to become a Public Health Dorset community health service provider.

Download: Community Health Improvement Services 2015-2019